

Information regarding The Chanda Morris Memorial Junior Volunteer Scholarship

The Chanda Morris Junior Volunteer Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by the Gritman Medical Center Auxiliary in Moscow, Idaho to memorialize Chanda Morris. Her untimely death was the result of a car accident in 1991. She was a high school junior in Troy, Idaho.

Chanda was a member of the Honor Society Club, had a 4.0 GPA, and was President of her Junior Class. She was also a member of the Business Professional Club, Future Farmers of America, Spirit Club, basketball team and volleyball team.

Chanda was a Junior Volunteer at Gritman Medical Center for a little over 2 years and contributed 331 hours. The Junior volunteer program is for young men and women ages 14 through high school. Junior volunteers donate their time to patient and staff assistance and following hospital procedure, learning a variety of duties under the supervision of hospital staff.

Chanda served as secretary and president of Gritman's Junior Volunteer Council. She was named "Volunteer of the Year" in 1991. She was a goal-oriented student, and wanted to pursue a career in the medical profession as a physician.
